We earn money by selling our own products. Please assume that all order forms on this site are for our products and earn income for us when you purchase them.

We earn money by participating in affiliate programs. Many of the links on this website (and also those in our email newsletter) earn affiliate commissions. What's an affiliate commission? This basically means we earn money when you purchase a product that we link to. When you see links on this blog, please assume they are affiliate links.

This website exists to make money. As you read my website and newsletter, please assume the purpose of the article is generating income for our business. At the same time, we must say that our core goal is to always provide useful and valuable information that empowers and educates entrepreneurs.

Testimonial Disclaimer

These examples are not typical.

Because of the variables associated with defining success in online marketing it is impossible to accurately state what an individual may or may not achieve.

Success is determined on an individual basis and is dependent on a variety of factors including willingness to take action and implement ideas based on what is taught, prevailing market conditions, target market selection, and the amount of hard work and effort an individual expends.

Similar to other type of marketing, our typical student should not expect to make any amount of money from the training the Company provides but should expect to receive a great education.

Consequently, the Company does not guarantee success, income, or savings whether explicit or implied, and past customer testimonials are only examples of what can be obtained. There are risks associated with this education, and past results do not represent an indication of future success or earnings.

The customers depicted in this testimonial have declared the information shared is true and accurate.

The written, audio and visual presentations offered may have been edited from their original versions. Some personal and private information has been removed in order to protect client and brand partner privacy.
